The Black Diamond Blue Five

What will you hear from the BDBF? There will be many of Clarence Williams' compositions - and you'll be surprised how many jazz standards he was responsible for. "Cakewalkin' Babies from Home," the best known, best loved marching song for all the dancers and paraders, is but one of them. You will hear the stomping rhythms and bluesy pop-jazz sound so typical of the Clarence Williams Blue Five. The Band was Founded by George Knoblauch in the early 1990's. Despite George's passing, the band has decided to continue performing to pay tribute to their friend and honor his memory.

Leon Oakley, cornet
Robert Young, saxophone
Jeff Hamilton, piano
Bill Reinhart, banjo
Clint Baker, tuba

Ramona Baker, special added attraction, early ragtime piano.

President's Message

Food/drink update: As of right now there will be no food or wine available from the cafe/bar at our June gig. There is hope, however, as interviews continue in order to find the right folks to run those venues. We will provide water and soft drinks and some snacks. If you would like to bring food to share that would be great.

As of July 2019, the fee for a couple's regular membership will go up from $70 to $80. That change is to level the playing field so that a single regular membership that is $40 will match the couple membership. No other changes in fees will be made at this time.

The San Francisco Feetwarmers provided an entertaining and lively afternoon last month and were enjoyed by all - both listeners and dancers.

The Black Diamond Blue Five jazz band will join us on June 9. This band is difficult to schedule, as the members are such busy musicians so we are fortunate that Clint was able to get the group together and we look forward to hearing their unique sound. It's a sound not heard as frequently as it once was, so we are a lucky club to have them appearing. Don't miss this chance to hear a really fine band - BDB5 will be on our stage soon. Come one, come all!

See you all then,

Linda
