on July 14, 2019 1:00 - 4:00 Neely's Rhythm Aces

For more than 30 years, Don Neely has been recognized as a pioneer of the 1920's and early 30's "Hot Dance" revival. He and his Royal Society Jazz Orchestra, founded in 1975, have performed at many major events in San Francisco, trad jazz festivals and clubs around the country as well as internationally,

Don now shares his love of the small group jazz bands of the 1920's and 30's with his Rhythm Aces. The NRA still plays the same great music with an emphasis on melody and the hot two-beat and four-beat styles of the era. You'll hear trad jazz standards, great pop tunes, forgotten gems, as well as some originals, all great for dancing. The name of the group is inspired by a combination of Jabbo Smith's Rhythm Aces and the National Recovery Administration of 1933, not the National Rifle Association.

President's Message

Food/wine update - the good news is that someone has been hired to run the cafe/tavern, but that won't happen for about a month due to the need to hire staff along with other requirements. So, there will still be no wine available in July and we will provide snacks and soft drinks. If you'd like to bring along some snacks to share it would be appreciated.

Neely's Rhythm Aces will join us on July 14 and Don has put together a stellar line up so I hope you will all come to enjoy a very fine band. It's a good way to wrap up the Cline Festival weekend.

We were delighted to welcome the Black Diamond Blue Five Jazz Band in June. It was particularly special as BDB5 doesn't appear as often as it used to, so it was great to hear them after a long spell. We want to thank Tom Wolford for his generosity. In paying half of the band's fee, it is very much appreciated. The club always welcomes sponsoring a band, so if a favorite band is on our schedule, you might want to consider a donation to contribute to their fee.

Hope to see the dance floor full on July 14. See you all then.

Linda
